

Community-Engaged Research (CEnR) Lunch & Learn Series

These sessions seek to promote high quality, high impact CEnR by addressing topics that are essential to effective engagement of stakeholders in the research process. This series is offered to faculty, staff, and graduate students who are interested or engaged in CEnR.

Session Titles	Dates (All times are 12pm-1pm)	Speakers	Locations
CEnR: A Collaborative Approach	September 24, 2013	Saba Masho	One Capital Square 12th Floor Conference Room
Engaging with a Community Review Board	October 25, 2013	Amber Haley	Larrick Court End Ballroom A
Developing and Sustaining Partnerships	November 13, 2013	Maghboeba Mosavel	Larrick Jackson Ward B
Grant Funding for CEnR	December 6, 2013	Jessica Venable	ASPiRE West Grace South Room 1004A
Methodological Approaches in CEnR: Considerations for Stakeholder Involvement	January 22, 2014	Rebecca Etz	Larrick Jackson Ward Room
Ethical Considerations in CEnR	February 12, 2014	Elizabeth Ripley	Larrick Court End Ballroom A
CEnR Evaluation: Process and Outcomes	March 21, 2014	Allison Vanderbilt	ASPiRE Room WGS 1004a
Disseminating your Research	April 18, 2014	Sarah Simon	Larrick Jackson Ward Room

The Community Engaged Research
Lunch and Learn Series is sponsored by:

Office of Research- www.research.vcu.edu
 Center on Health Disparities- www.healthdisparities.vcu.edu
 Institute for Women's Health- www.womenshealth.vcu.edu
 Division of Community Engagement (DCE)- www.community.vcu.edu
 Center for Clinical Translational Research (CCTR)- www.cctr.vcu.edu

For more information, contact CEnR@vcu.edu

